

The Gurdjieff Foundation of New York, New Paltz Branch invites you to attend a presentation:

THE SEARCH FOR MEANING IN THE MIDST OF LIFE

A short film about William Segal (painter and spiritual teacher) created by Ken Burns will be shown

The Adriance Memorial Library
93 Market Street, Poughkeepsie, NY

2:00 pm, Saturday March 11, 2017

scan the QR code to get event details

Reservations recommended. To reserve a place or for additional information, please respond to:
GurdjieffFdnNewPaltz@gmail.com

Free and open to the public

The event will include refreshments and opportunities for conversation

“We can’t say why we search, except that there seems to be an innate need in each human being to know who one is, what we’re here for, how to live more poetically.” –William Segal